

Israel, The Red Horse, Gog and Magog

There is no shortage of books discussing the “End Times” from Biblical scholars who have been studying such events for a lot longer than me. Some of the more prominent ones include Joel Rosenberg, Tim LaHaye, Hal Lindsey and Grant Jeffrey. Just like with the identification of “Mystery, Babylon” there is disagreement on the actual “Battle of Armageddon”. Some say the Battle of Gog and Magog is it and others claim that it is merely a pre-cursor, the one event where God will separate the wheat from the tares as He puts His own power on display. The intent here is not to settle the debate; this will come later. It is basically three fold.

First, is to establish some clarity if not sanity over the supposed “Jewish conspiracy” overtaking the world. The next one is to discuss the reality of the so-called Palestinian “problem”. The third is to discuss the nation of Israel as one of the best signs of God’s reality by fulfilling ancient prophecies. This helps quell the “New” Age and related fools who want to ‘cherry pick’ the Bible for THEIR socialist agenda or disregard it all together as a book of fantasies.

1. The “Jewish Conspiracy”

As documented in the Introduction of the “THEorY of LIVEvolution” to call the impending Illuminati induced One World slave state a “Jewish Conspiracy” is one big misnomer. The source of the problem is that two of the historical power players at the center of it all are the names Rothschild and their offshoots the Warburgs. The Rothschilds in particular are Jewish in name only; the family was named Bauer and took the name Rothschild or “red shield” in the mid-18th century. And the lineage didn’t actually convert to Judaism until around the ninth century AD; so they don’t trace all the way back to God’s Chosen People, Israel. And many names in the banking industry are Jewish but the two most powerful criminal banking families in this country’s history that also are complicit in the upcoming global gulag are the self-professed “Christian” Morgans and Rockefellers.

So what then is the deal with all this confusion? I believe it has to do with the modern day Zionist movement. God, the real One, utilized the word “Zion” in association with Israel in the Old Testament but it’s a far cry from today’s version. The best way is to define three key terms: Zionist, Semitic and Jewish.

Zionist now means those that want to regain Israel for the Jews or so they say. However, this modern group, that includes the aforementioned Rothschild family, has ulterior motives outside of helping your everyday, “imbecile majority” like Jewish person. This version of the Zionist movement formed in the late nineteenth century. Many prophecy scholars point to the fertile lands and copious minerals and oil as the goal of many so-called Zionists. This could be but there’s more. These people want their hands on Jerusalem because this is where, they believe, their God (really Lucifer the “Angel of Light”) will bring down heaven or “New Jerusalem” to earth as spelled out in the Book of Revelations. There is copious evidence to back up this claim. For example the so called “Star of David” has nothing to do with the BC era Israeli king of history but the “Kabalah” of two integrating triangles. This is directly symbolic of the “New” Age heaven of “microcosm and macrocosm” or “as above so below”. This concept is covered much more extensively on the Kabalah link on the RC Christian page. And of course the “religion of peace” wants Jerusalem since, all of a sudden, it’s Islam’s “third holiest site” which is kind of funny considering it’s never mentioned once in the Koran. What’s really being set between these two nefarious groups is the climactic Battle of Gog and Magog or Armageddon.

Semitic refers to the descendants of Abraham. Abraham had two children in his advanced years. The first, Ishmael was with his maid Hagar. These two cut out of Abraham’s camp when the second child, Isaac, came about with Sarah, his actual wife (I’m not justifying any of this behavior just reporting what’s in the Bible).

Ishmael ended up in the area of Egypt and this was the start of what we know today as Arabs. Isaac's descendants became God's Chosen people, Israel.

Jewish refers to the modern descendants of Israel. Even for God's Chosen people it hasn't always been a smooth ride. They were constantly in trouble with God almost from day one of their Exodus from Egypt for everything human including rebellion, greed and idol worship not to mention the Crucifixion of His Son.

With this basic foundation let's proceed.

2. The Palestinian "Problem"

It's important to dispel some historical refuse known as the "Palestinian" problem that everyone from the UN-dead to the family dog is so "concerned" about these days, thanks mostly to THEIR media efforts and our useless officials. The following discussion is only an overview. The two best books to read on the subject of Palestinian propaganda include "Why I Left Jihad" by ex PLO terrorist turned Christian Walid Shoebat and "Judgment Day" by Dave Hunt. Other information is only a "Google" search away. And please be aware this is a discussion of facts and is in no way intended to minimize the real life suffering of those that are collectively called Palestinians.

As discussed in the introduction God made a Covenant with Abraham in the Sumerian City of Ur around 2250 BC that established the lineage of His "Chosen People". Eventually they made it to the 'Promised Land' within three generations with the arrival of his grandson Jacob who had twelve sons (i.e., the twelve tribes of Israel). The original covenant for the Promised Land extended all the way from the Mediterranean east to the River Euphrates (Israel occupies less than one percent of that land today). Some time later Jacob and his twelve sons were forced to leave Israel for Egypt whereupon they were received with glee since one of them, Joseph, had correctly forecast a region wide famine that saved countless Egyptian lives.

The Islamic religion as specified by the Koran regards Moses as a great guru or prophet and the first five Books of the Bible he authored as sacred. This is VERY important to keep in mind as we proceed.

To start there was never a country called Palestine or a so-called Palestinian people of Arabic descent until 135 AD. Today's "Palestinian problem" has its origins in 1948 when the newly formed UN-dead sanctioned country of Israel was attacked by the surrounding Arab countries. The Arabs living in the land of Israel were warned to leave by the invading Arabs; Israel never forced them out. However, most of these people had nowhere to go and many weren't absorbed by their so-called Arab brothers. Now suddenly these refugees are known as "Palestinians". The Roman province that Jesus lived in was called Judea. It was always known as such from the beginning of the Roman Empire until 135 as discussed. Prior to this during the Babylonian Empire that preceded the Persian Empire, it was known as Israel and Judah (the twelve original tribes of Israel had split but that is peripheral to this discussion).

Some Arabs point to Abraham's first son Ishmael as proof that their claims to fictional Palestine go back to almost two thousand years BC. This is not the case. According to the prophet Moses, Ishmael's mother, Hagar, was forced out of town and her son Ishmael's descendants ended up in the area of modern day Egypt. The land that modern Israel occupies was originally called Canaan and the occupiers after Jacob and his sons vacated due to the famine were known as Canaanites. There were some other tribes also and God, the real One, ran them all out of town as He instructs Moses to leave Egypt 430 years after they arrived as discussed previously:

Then the Lord said to Moses, 'Leave this place, you and the people you brought up out of Egypt, and go up to the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob,' saying 'I will give it to your descendants. I will send an angel before you and drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. (Exodus 33 Verses 1-3)

You may say this is an example of the 'cruel' God but these people were evil and idol worshipers; that right there is odd itself. Remember, the Koran recognizes the first five books of the Bible and considers Moses one of its prophets. How is it that those "interested" in the "Palestinian cause" missed this? Allah strictly forbids idol worship to any gods but him but that's exactly what the Canaanites, the supposed "Palestinians" of today, were doing according to...the Koran itself! Notice, too, there's no name Ishmael in that verse.

Here's the first mention of a place called "Palestina" by the Muslim prophet Moses in the Book of Exodus just after God, the real One, destroyed the Egyptian army defending His people I-S-R-A-E-L as they escaped Egypt under Moses as discussed:

Then Sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord, and spake saying, I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown to the sea. (Verse 15:1)

The people shall hear, and be afraid: sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestina. Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed: the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away. (Verse 15:14-15)

So once again we can see the people known as "Israel" are granted the right to take "Palestina" from "the inhabitants Canaan" by the Islamic holy man Moses!

The name Palestine didn't come into existence until 135 AD by Roman emperor Hadrian. The descendants of Israel or the Jews had been a constant rebellion problem and he wanted a name to try to expunge the Jews of Judea from the records. The name Palestine came from the Old Testament Hebrew word Palasheth or Philistia, the land of the non-Semitic Philistines located in modern day southwest Israel. Hadrian took the name Philistia and twisted it to "Palestine". Fair enough. But by all historical records the Philistines originated around modern day Greece before migrating to the Middle East. This precludes them from being a Semitic race. The problem is that the Palestinians claim to be a "Semitic" people. Therefore, they're staking their claim to "Palestine" to a group of people who were non-Semitic and lived in a place so named because Rome was surprise, surprise, mad at the Jews. Continuing, there's no familial, cultural, religious or any valid historical trace of any human race from today back to the original Canaanites.

In summary, today's "Palestinians" CANNOT claim any relation to the aforementioned Canaanites who occupied modern day Israel because it contradicts their own prophet Moses and their so-called holy book, the Koran. In addition the first five books of the Bible specifically dedicate land to Israel. Whether you agree with this account or not isn't even relevant here: this stuff is supposedly part of the Koran!

Now let's look at the modern "Palestinian" "problem".

In 70 AD the Romans evicted the Jews from Judea (it was not named Palestine yet) for good until the UN-dead reinstated Israel in 1948. Another popular line amongst the "Palestinians" is that it wasn't their fault the Romans kicked out the Jews, but they always occupied the land from 135 AD on. When one reviews the literature from governments to archaeologists who were in the land now known as Palestine what emerges is a very different picture than a thriving "Palestinian" society. The land was sparsely populated desert for almost two thousand years. For example in the middle eighteenth century Thomas Shaw a British archaeologist claimed Palestine was "lacking in people to till its fertile soil". In 1857 the British Consul in Palestine reported that Palestine was "a considerable degree empty" and in need of "a body of population". Many more from papal authorities to writers and historians make similar statements throughout the time of Israel's vacancy. The land, for whatever it was worth, did change hands several times after 70 AD. In 634 Mohammed's armies (yes that Mohammed) under the new "religion of peace" or Islam occupied the area. It was taken back temporarily by the Crusaders from Europe. They held the area for around 200 years and in 1291 the land fell back to the Muslims. In 1517 the Turkish Empire took over. Exactly 400 years later the British, fighting the Turks in World War I, returned to Israel looking for a fight. British Foreign Secretary Arthur Balfour at the bequest of Dr. Chaim Weizmann, a Jewish scientist who helped Britain overcome its shortage of explosives by inventing TNT, issued a decree opening up once again the land of Israel to the Jews. Interestingly enough he wrote to a member of the Rothschild family stating his case. Nonetheless on December 11, 1917 General Allenby led British troops into Jerusalem under the Balfour Declaration. The occupying Turks, many of whom had never seen a plane before, became scared of the British air force and left without a fight. This is where things really get interesting. Worldwide, the Jews didn't take the open invitation seriously. The ones that did started taking advantage of the Promised Land and began farms and businesses. Twenty-five years later when Hitler began his antics is when many more Jews became interested in showing up for obvious reasons. As an aside, many nations including England and the U.S. turned away persecuted Jews. Some made it to the "Promised Land", some didn't.

Since nobody knew what to do with the Jews who managed to survive the Holocaust, on May 14, 1948 the UN-dead made Israel a nation once again. Jews from around the world poured in; that a population scattered literally to the "four corners" of the globe would reconstitute themselves after two thousand years is nothing short of miraculous.

That's when the fireworks started.

Literally that day no less than six Arab nations ganged up and invaded. The young, really young, nation fought back and repelled the invaders. This is not the first time Israel would overcome insurmountable odds and win a miraculous victory. The same pattern repeated itself in the 1956, 1967 and 1973 wars. There is no shortage of Israeli soldiers claiming miraculous "help" and other unusual circumstances in many of these wars. So you can see the pattern of miracles already enveloping God's Chosen people in the twentieth century. Let's return to the "Palestinian Problem" before a discussion on the real miracle of Biblical Prophecy. Remember the land of Palestine was open to the Jews in 1917. Between this time and 1948 the ones that did show up started businesses and farms on the fertile lands. Some nomadic outsiders from other countries including the other Arabic countries, even some European countries also sprung roots to work with and for the Jews. This divergence of populations coming together relatively recently is another falsity of the "coherence" of the so called Palestinians.

Are you beginning to smell a rat here?

Before the first attempt to eliminate Israel in May 1948 the so called Palestinians were "warned" to leave by the Arabs who feared the Jewish state under discussion at the UN-dead. This was in late 1947. The "warning" was basically either scare tactics (i.e., that the Jews would turn the place into a bloodbath at the end of the British Balfour mandate) or any non-Jews would be killed as Jewish collaborators. So obviously many "Palestinians" (really Arabs and some others who recently migrated there) skipped town and in so doing they ended up as real refugees in the surrounding Arab countries. It's public record that the Arabs themselves didn't want to deal with these people and many stated as such. Therefore, many remained in "refugee camps". The so called "Palestinian problem" didn't hit the forefront until after the 1967 war. After this six day war Israel re-captured Jerusalem and the rest of the West Bank from Jordan, the strategic high point Golan Heights from Syria and the Sinai Peninsula from Egypt. This was another one of those outlandishly miraculous times that had the entire world befuddled. Jerusalem was re-united for the first time since 70 AD (and even then they gave half the city right back to the "Palestinians"). This was when the so called "Palestinian Problem" came to the forefront. Suddenly those Arab countries and the fools over at the UN-dead were upset with Israel for imprisoning the "Palestinians". Never mind that the Arabs had caused them to leave in the first place some twenty years earlier and still kept them in “refugee camps” by disallowing entry to their “Muslim brothers”.

My friends Israel is around the size of New Jersey and now they want it to give up some land that the Arab countries could have given up themselves for decades from their much more copious land. And now suddenly Jerusalem is the so called “third holiest site” in all of Islam. The “religion of peace” didn’t give a blank’s blank about Jerusalem for almost two thousand years and now it’s a “Holy Site” when Israel captures it? By the way, neither “Palestine” nor Jerusalem is mentioned once in the Koran. Ummm. Well maybe they “forgot”; they wouldn’t be lying to the infidel world just like Mohammed told them as they prepared for war, would they? This concept of fake peace or ‘hudna’ was the ploy of the prophet Mohammed: Make a peace treaty with your enemy but use this time to prepare for another war. Incidentally, this war should start as a surprise and kill or enslave any infidels or non-Muslims.

Here’s an example of an ex-Muslim that is typical of every ex-Muslim that I’ve read or heard:

Later I realized the prejudices and hatred that Muslims harbor against almost all non-Muslims are not the result of any misinterpretation of the Qur’an but is because this book teaches hate and encourages prejudice. Those Muslims who go to the mosques and listen to the sermons of the mullahs are affected. There are many verses in the Qur’an that call believers to hate non-believers, fight them, call them najis, subdue and humiliate them, chop off their heads and limbs, crucify them, and kill them wherever they find them. (1)

The “religion of peace”, really?

Of course if they didn’t “forget” and are in fact lying about the “holiness” of Jerusalem and their real goal is to eviscerate Israel just like the charters of Hamas and Hezbollah state and Iran’s loony-bin President often makes all too clear this would make the UN-dead and Jimmy Carter about the biggest useful idiots since I don’t know when.

My friends Yasser Arafat formed the so called Palestinian Liberation Organization in 1964, three years before the “Palestinian” “problem” hit the mainstream. And speaking of Arafat, this guy took billions from the UN-dead (that’s where you and I come in; who do you think funds most of the UN-dead?) and did who knows what with it. This guy was telling everyone else to be a suicide bomber while he lived the life of luxury. When he was on his death bed did he go out with in a blaze of glory for Allah? No he spent time in the best hospitals in France. And this is the “Palestinian” “Freedom” “Fighter”? And this clown even won a Nobel “Peace” Prize? Do you think the garbage “land for peace” is really about “saving” the “Palestinians”? The terrorist groups Hezbollah and Hamas openly proclaim they exist solely to destroy Israel. My friends this whole situation is the scam of scams yet it appears that Israel is the “bad” guy. Now I’m not saying that Israel is totally innocent but like the United States (the old one) it is far from perfect but for the most part it wishes nothing more than to exist on its small piece of land as a free people. When a country goes to war as Israel must when people are throwing rockets into their schools and hospitals things aren’t always pretty. And unfortunately civilians die; especially when the terrorists hid amongst them. I’m sure all the armchair generals who decry Israel’s “genocide” would want our government to exercise restraint if Canada were lobbing rockets into Buffalo and sending suicide bombers into Times Square.

Israel is the bane of just about everybody today. Deplorable ex “President” peanut farmer Jimmy Carter wrote a whole book claiming the Israelis were to blame for the “Palestinians”. The UN-dead can’t say enough bad things or lambaste Israel enough while allowing scumbag leaders like say Yasser Arafat to go unpunished or even flourish.

For example in a recent article (7/28/07) on WorldNetDaily entitled Israel: U.N.'s favorite punching bag writer Hal Lindsey laments:

The U.N. Human Rights Council has spent the full period of its existence investigating Israeli "violations" of human rights, to the exclusion of other nations. Of all the nations in the world, Israel is the only one to earn special status of being permanently placed on the UNHRC's monthly agenda. First, the UNHRC examines Israel, and then, if there is any time left, they go to new business. To date, there's been no time left.

Senator Norm Coleman of Minnesota has had enough: "You've got countries like North Korea, Burma, Zimbabwe, where you have got state sponsored brutality, and we have deafening silence,"...

This kind of UN-fair Israel bashing isn't limited to peanut "President" Carter and the rest of the UN-dead. By the way "President" Carter happens to be a member of something called the Elders, a group of ex-world "leaders" sponsored by the UN-dead to facilitate world peace. In his book "Why I Left Jihad" ex terrorist Walid Shoebat laments:

...Israel is a humane nation. She acts only to protect her people. However, what Israel did do wrong was to allow Yasser Arafat back in power. Whatever this terrorist did, Israel got the blame. If a flowchart of abuses were to be drawn, the arrows would always point to Israel, even though it was the Palestinian authority at fault. The Sabra and Shatella Massacres in Lebanon were blamed on Israel, even though they were carried out by the Lebanese. You would rarely read condemnation for Arabs killing Arabs, even though Arabs killed hundreds of thousands of other Arabs. (2)

And as if the bashing from the rest of the world weren't bad enough now we have some "Christian" Replacement Theology fools. Basically some "Christians" have made the claim that the "Church" has replaced Israel as God's Chosen People. Want to take one guess at which "Church" they mean? The Catholic Church is at the forefront for one. Even that group of self enriching pagans gets into the Israeli bashing act. For example, they were responsible for helping Nazi war criminals after World War II in addition to befriending them beforehand; the same Nazis who tried to solve the Jewish "problem" in addition to the "problems" of other "misfits" and undesirables. And deceased Pope John Paul II claimed that the shepherds of Bethlehem were "Palestinians". Maybe the Catholic Church should stick to fake religion and not try its hand at changing history as well. Apparently replacing the act of sacrifice of Jesus for fake confession and replacing unsuspecting parishioners' wealth to enrich their enlarged coiffures in the name of God isn't enough for these fools. Now they even want to replace God's Chosen People. As an aside, please don't take this as an attack on the misled Catholic masses, no pun intended. They must make their own mind to leave that church of blasphemy. As for the leadership...

And let me once again establish what appear to be subtle differences between Biblical Christianity and Islam. True the Old Testament is full of wars and violence. But realize that God, the real One, Himself is in charge of these things. And hopefully if you've read enough of this web site you'll see He was fighting the same "conspiracy" that's once again on the verge of taking over the world once again to satisfy their 'lord' Satan umm the "Angel of Light". So He's not dealing with real nice people here. Also, as depicted on the introduction page for this site and the To Arms, To Arms link, God in the flesh, Jesus Christ, the real One, discouraged violence. Of course He never said to be a complete wimp as indicated by His chasing away the money-changers with whips in anger. And notice He said "he who lives by the sword shall die by the sword". The operative word being live not defend. I realize this a fine line to walk but there it is. Perhaps we should have listened to the greatest president in US history, George Washington who said "the best way to have peace is to be always prepared for war".

3. Fulfilled Prophecies.

This helps set the Bible apart from all the fools who keep trying to discredit it from the THEorY of LIVEvolution fools to the “Religion of Peace” types.

For example in the Book of Isaiah God promises to bring the Jews back from captivity a second time:

And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of His people, which shall be left from Assyria, and from Egypt and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam and from Shinar and from Hamath and from the islands of the sea (Verse 11:11)

This verse was made prior to the Babylonian captivity in 606 BC discussed in the Introduction. The Jews were “recovered” the first time in 536 BC. They were then scattered again in 70 AD and “recovered” for the second time in 1948. Notice too that God is calling them from everywhere including “the islands of the sea”. The first recovery was from one specific place, Babylon. The second “recovery” has come from literally everywhere including the island nation of England and the United States itself. In August 2007 a group claiming to be one of the ten lost tribes of Israel showed up in Tel Aviv from India. Deputy communications director under former Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu claimed “...this is a miracle of immense historical and even biblical significance.”

In Amos 9:14 God alludes to the former wasteland of Palestine just discussed in Part 1:

And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel and they shall build the waste cities and inhabit them...

In the book “Israel in Prophecy” author Peter Gammons categorically lists prophecies from the Old Testament that point to the exact year of certain twentieth century events concerning the nation of Israel. The miracle of Israel’s very existence today after its reconstitution in 1948 is summed up in the following passage:

The survival of the Jews through centuries of exile and dispersion among the nations of the world can be accounted for only by miraculous intervention. Throughout history the arch-enemy of God has tried to annihilate them but ultimately, has always failed. Pharaoh could not drown them. Nebuchadnezzar could not burn them, the lions could eat them, the big fish could not digest them and Haman could not hang them. (3)

He needs to add Hitler, the UN-dead and no less than one hundred million Arabs in at least six Muslim nations trying to literally drown them into the Mediterranean Sea.

Mr. Gammon goes on to document several key events in the reconstituted Israel’s young history that have been filled to the very year based on Biblical prophecies from the Old Testament. One is the year 1917 that General Allenby marched into Jerusalem. A cryptic verse appears in the Book of Daniel 12 verse twelve that reads “Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days”. The term ‘day’ takes on multiple meanings in the Bible. In terms of Creation it’s a literal day, in Ezekiel 4:6 it equals a year, and in the aforementioned passage from Romans in the Introduction it’s a thousand years. In this case if we utilize Ezekiel’s definition it matches exactly the Lunar Time of the Arabic calendar being utilized in Jerusalem in 1917, the time of England’s arrival there: 1335. Even the timeframe of 400 years from Turkish occupation in 1517 has relevance, it is the time between the Old and New Testaments. This mimics a pattern of God’s use of numbers. Four or multiples of it are relevant here; 4 signifies ‘trial’. One example is the number 40. It was used copiously in the Bible. For example Moses 40 year stay in the desert prior to his return to Egypt, due to their constant misbehavior the Jews spent 40 years getting back to the Promised Land when it should have taken around a month, it rained 40 days and nights during the Flood and Jesus spent 40 days in the desert being tempted of Satan. Whole sections of books and books themselves have been written on this subject alone.

The other fulfilled prophecy is Israel's re-capture of the entire Jerusalem (they already occupied half of it from 1948) in the 1967 war. Multiple Biblical scholars from centuries past point to the year 334 BC when Alexander, as prophesized by the prophet Daniel, was making his push through Asia Minor as the start date of another prophecy from that same Daniel. In chapter 8 verse 13-14 of his Book he laments, "...And he said unto me, Unto two thousand three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed." Mr. Gammons cites several Biblical scholars from the past several centuries that have correctly forecast the year 1967 as the year "the sanctuary" or Jerusalem would be recaptured.

My friends this is really important because today in 2009 Israel is indeed the UN-dead's "favorite punching bag" and most of the rest of the world for the "Palestinian Problem" that they have little if any culpability in to begin with. Additionally it is another example of the entire world going "To the Mouth of Madness". Look at the United States. It's a foregone conclusion that any of our pre-selected "Presidents" will bow to the altar of the UN-dead. Let's take a brief look at the madness surrounding PLO leader Yasser Arafat. We've already discussed him briefly. In true Mohammedesque "hudna" fashion in front of the UN-dead and the rest of the world including "President" Clinton he was peace, love and Joy to the Jews. Meanwhile in Arabic he was all about suicide bombing and sending Israel literally into the sea. As explained he pilfered who knows how many billions from UN-dead money meant for the "Palestinians". On top of all this he was awarded a Nobel Peace Prize! Wait it gets better. We've already explained how he died but now his successor is someone named Mahmoud Abbas, a former deputy. Things are so bad with the other "Palestinian" freedom fighters, namely Hamas and Hezbollah that his "new" PLO terrorist organization, Fatah, is seen as the moderate group! So now the United States is giving them weapons to control the even worse Hamas and Hezbollah who wind up stealing the U.S. weaponry anyway! And Israel I guess to show the world that it was willing to cooperate left the Gaza Strip (the land in its south separating it from Egypt) to "Palestinian" "rule". The Gaza Strip has a wall between it and Egypt indicating how willing those Muslims "brothers" want to interact with their "Palestinian" Muslims. The Fatah party "lost" the election but "co-governed" with Hamas which is now running the place unopposed armed largely with United States weaponry taken from Fatah. And it has turned Gaza into a rocket launching pad into southern Israel. Israel justifiably cut them off as a result and now the "Palestinian" people are suffering much worse in their "liberation" than they were under the Israeli "occupation" where they were free, relatively safe and able to run businesses. Gaza has been given "Palestinian" self-rule and the rest of the oil rich Arab nations instead of lending a hand let it slip to a bunch of Hamas thugs. And the world still wants to blame Israel for this mess. And today the so called "peace" plan the UN-dead world is developing involves Israel splitting off its part of Jerusalem to the "Palestinian" Authority. What "Authority" I don't know since from what this "conspiracy theorist" can see the "Palestinians" are controlled by a bunch of rocket launching thugs that find it more important to lob projectiles at Israeli towns and college campuses than feed the people it claims to be liberating. Additionally, now less than disgraceful "President" peanut Carter, an "Elder" of peace of the UN-dead, is ready to meet with...Hamas.

My friends this is only an overview but you see what a debacle this whole thing is. You can't make this stuff up.

In a nutshell, no pun intended, the world, lead by the U.S. and the UN-dead is well, nuts. They are utilizing "moderate" Arab terrorists who have publicly stated by their own admission, in Arabic, their real concern is the destruction of Israel not helping the "Palestinians" who in turn became "refugees" because of these same Arab countries themselves - all in regards to an entire population that is quite frankly a lie in the first place!

And on top of this the “more” radical groups have taken control anyways! And don’t forget the money pilfering terrorist leader was given a “Peace” prize! My friends you contribute to this UN-dead litany of lunacy every time you send your Federal Reserve Notes to Queen Hillary and friends; not to mention our old friend, “DK”.

Again, I ask, who is the real “kook” here?

What’s really serious is that this area is setting the stage for the final battle of Gog and Magog or Armageddon.

Today the Russians, and to an extent the Chinese, are helping Iran to build its nuclear facilities and weapons program. This in and of itself is amazing. Throughout history the Russians and the Muslim world have been arch-enemies. The latest example was the ill fated Russian invasion of Afghanistan in the eighties. Many Muslim countries were scared of the invasion by their sworn enemy and now they’re “the best of friends”. This is why many non-Biblical scholars scoffed at the War of Gog and Magog. Most Biblical scholars have identified these two groups as Russia and its allies including Turkey, Iran and a host of African countries including Ethiopia and Libya. (Walid Shoebat in his book insists that this is not the case; Gog and Magog are represented by the nations in Asia Minor most notably Turkey.) Some Biblical scholars claim that the Battle of Gog and Magog will be before the “Great Tribulation”, the period of the seven seal judgments. Others, including Mr. Shoebat insist the Battle of Gog and Magos is the climactic Battle of Armageddon. This latter view is the one of this “conspiracy theorist”.

What will happen is that the armies of the world will gather and try to overtake God’s Chosen people. Don’t forget from before today’s Zionists want Jerusalem for their heaven. Talk about a train wreck waiting to happen. And God, who promises to laugh at our calamity, will more or less say “show’s over”. In some form or fashion He will put his power on display as one last warning to a rebellious human race. And as usual, some will get the “hint”, some won’t.

For now, the important message to take from this is that big things are happening and will unfold very rapidly in the next several years. Iran is, depending on which source you read, literally within one to five years of a full scale nuclear arsenal. They are receiving advanced rocket technology from the ...Chinese who advanced by some estimates twenty years instantly thanks to “President” Oxford Bill who was “busy” in the Oval Office tending to “other” matters in addition to the rest of Howard Dean’s DNC...Do you still think “it was just about sex” or “character doesn’t matter”? When I see these nitwits on TV I’m not sure whether to laugh or put a brick through the screen. This isn’t a plug for the Republican fools either.

With this background what is most important is this: 1. The “Palestinian” problem is another widespread lie in a world full of them. 2. Many of the aforementioned events fulfill, some to the literal day, prophecies spelled out in the Bible and 3. Israel and the tiny City of Jerusalem are once again front and center on the world stage; a world that is sinking rapidly “To the Mouth of Madness” and the Red Horse, the climactic ‘Battle of Gog and Magog’.

The bottom line is that the world is being set up for something big; there’s much more going on than “just” the economic implosion happening all around us. May I invite you, the reader, to once again take up God, the real One, on His simple salvation plan atop the home page?

Now back to your regularly scheduled re-education umm “programming”...
